

Instructions for adding Global Impact flag to FAR activities

If individuals are adding new entries or editing existing ones in any of the below categories, they will see the interface with accompanying checkboxes. Per the fact, these flags function on a category by category basis, faculty will need to enter each category and make changes or updates as needed.

The easiest way to access these screens is through the Profile editor in your Faculty Activity Report.

The screenshot shows a web interface for adding an honor or award. The main heading is "Honors & Awards" under a "Faculty Profile" header. The form is titled "Add Honor/Award" and contains several sections:

- Organization: A text input field.
- *Description: A text input field.
- *Date Received: A text input field.
- Global Impact: A link to a separate page.
- *Countries: A dropdown menu with a list of regions: Eastern Europe, Europe (selected), Northern Europe, Southern Europe, and Western Europe. Below the dropdown are two tags: "x Argentina" and "x Afghanistan", and the text "europe".
- Interdisciplinary: A checkbox that is unchecked.
- Community Engagement: A checkbox that is unchecked.
- Publish to my Web Page: A checkbox that is checked.
- *Required: A section with three buttons: "Save", "Save and Add Another", and "Cancel".

At the bottom of the form, there is a label "Add Item" and a close button (X).

- Click Save or Save and Add Another.

Step 4:

- Activities tagged within your FAR Faculty Profile will automatically be imported into the Global U Inventory on an hourly basis.
